Middle Schools and Chaska Elementary in Lock Down

Today, at 10:46 AM, a motorist reported what they believed to be a suspicious male walking eastbound along Engler Blvd., west of Hwy 41. The male was walking in the general direction of the campus of both Middle Schools and the Chaska Elementary School. Our caller stated that, while not certain, it was thought that the male was carrying something that could have been "a rifle".

All schools were notified per CPD procedure and placed in an external lockdown mode. Chaska officers and county deputies have searched – continue to search – the area on foot and by car. They have found nothing suspicious, nor have they encountered the (or any) male walking in the area.

At this time we are comfortable that no danger exists; however, the schools will remain in lock down mode until noon.
